

Local News

: Personals :

Frank Gary, who has been quite sick at Annapolis is better.

Dr. L. T. Hill was a professional visitor in Greenwood Tuesday.

Fred Ferguson, of Antreville, spent Sunday in the city with friends.

Mrs. C. D. Brown and Mrs. S. A. McCuen were in Greenwood Tuesday.

Mrs. Dendy Miller was a spend-the-day visitor in Calhoun Falls Tuesday.

Miss Daisy Maxwell was among the Abbeville visitors in Greenwood Tuesday.

Mr. Evans Hunt came up from Verdery Tuesday and spent the day in the city.

Mr. Lawrence Hester, of Hester, was a business visitor in Abbeville Wednesday.

Mrs. J. L. Anderson has returned to Abbeville after an extended visit to relatives in Gibson, N. C.

Miss Carrie Cowan was in town Wednesday. She came to see the spring hats and to buy garden seed.

Julian Roche went to Anderson on business Tuesday returning to Abbeville Wednesday.

There are two charity patients in the County hospital, one from the city and one from the county.

Mr. E. P. McIlwaine, of Hodges, was on our streets Tuesday looking after personal business.

Rev. G. M. Telford went to Greenville this week and attended the meeting of the Laymen's Missionary Union.

Francis Mabry delighted his friends by coming down town Tuesday afternoon. Every one was glad to see him out again.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Owen, of Greenwood, were business visitors in the city for a short while Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Carter Arnold, of Elberton, arrived in the city this afternoon for a visit to her parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. T. Hill.

Miss Sarah Haigler goes to McCormick this week for a visit of several days with her sister, Miss Mary Haigler.

Mr. Joe Anderson, of Antreville, who was the truant officer of the county with the bad boys, was in town on business Tuesday.

Miss Mildred Boyd, who spent several days last week with Miss Dorothy Syfan, has returned to her home in Mt. Carmel.

Mrs. J. B. Ferguson and little granddaughter, of Greenwood, are in Abbeville for a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Earle Ferguson.

Miss Mamie Baskin and Mrs. Laura Love went to Lowndesville Sunday to attend the funeral services of Mr. Thos. Baskin.

Frank Harrison is in Atlanta looking after the latest styles in jewelry and seeing the automobile show. He will return Thursday.

Mrs. Klugh Purdy and her young son, Klugh, have returned to their home in Ridgeland, after spending a week in Abbeville with Mrs. Tom Klugh.

Mr. E. J. Kay was here from Anderson Tuesday to see his young grandson, Glenn Kay, Jr., who has been quite sick for the past week. The little fellow is improving.

Mrs. Lawrence Ashley, of Due West has been in Abbeville since last Saturday visiting her sister, Mrs. Robert Ellis, who continues quite sick.

Mr. Ernest Russell, of the Street Paving force who has been at his home in Mississippi suffering with an injured hand, is recovering and is back at work.

Miss Mamie Wardlaw returned to Chester Tuesday. She has been special nurse for Mrs. T. H. Maxwell, who is now well enough to dispense with her services.

Mr. and Mrs. Paschal are back in Abbeville after an extended visit to Florida. Mrs. Paschal has been away since December. Mr. Paschal is employed at the Seaboard shops.

Mr. J. W. Martin left Tuesday for pleasure trip to Miami, Fla. Mr. Martin made the trip through the country and expects to be away about two weeks.

Mrs. R. E. Caldwell has returned to her home in Hartsville after a visit of three weeks to her sister, Mrs. W. M. Barnwell. Mrs. Caldwell enjoyed many social pleasures while in Abbeville.

THE MERRIE MATRONS

Mrs. W. A. Lee entertained the Merrie Matrons at a pleasant meeting Tuesday. In addition to the members Mrs. Fulp and Mrs. Moore Mars were guests.

SECESSION CHAPTER MEETS

The regular meeting of the Daughters of the Confederacy was held Tuesday afternoon. The Abbeville chapter has become so large that the entertaining has been divided and Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Lucy Thomson and Mrs. Frank Henry were hostesses, the meeting being held at the home of Mrs. Henry. About fifty ladies were present and a meeting of much interest was held.

Permission was granted the D. A. R.'s to place the revolutionary cannon on the monument park.

There was some dissatisfaction with the change of the name of the chapter and on a vote being taken, the name, "Secession Chapter of Abbeville" was decided upon.

Mrs. Cason as chairman of the Park committee portioned out the work of caring for the Park.

The Daughters are following the programs as furnished by the State officers and Tuesday Mrs. W. E. Owen and Miss May Robertson gave readings of historical events around Charleston.

There was some dissatisfaction the old officers being unanimously re-elected, the chapter going on record as being particularly pleased with Mrs. Frank Wilson as president. Mrs. J. C. Klugh declined re-election as Historian.

After the business meeting an elaborate salad course with coffee was served, Mrs. Henry being assisted by her daughters, Mrs. Leslie, Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Neuffer and by Mrs. Jordan Ramey and Miss Jessie Hill.

The afternoon was a pleasant one, Mrs. Thomson and Mrs. Henry showing the younger generation the art of entertaining delightfully.

Dr. Rakestraw's Appointments

Dr. Rakestraw was in Abbeville Monday afternoon and all day Tuesday. He will be here regularly in the future on these days.

THE NEWS FROM WAYNESVILLE

Sulphur Springs at Waynesville, N. C. has been leased to the government for five years and will be used as a vocational school for soldiers. There will be about three hundred soldiers in the camp and they will not be required to wear uniforms. Waynesville is preparing to give the soldiers a royal welcome but there is a flaw in the picture for school teachers and young girls—many of the soldiers are accompanied by their brides.

Sulphur Springs is a beautiful place and many will regret that it is to be closed to the public for the next five years.

WOMEN MUST REGISTER

The election to be held in April for alderman of the town is beginning to be talked about. The women of the city must register for this election. The registration must be at the City Council office.

SHOPPING IN ABBEVILLE

Rev. and Mrs. H. W. Pratt and Mrs. John R. Blake were in the city Tuesday. Mrs. Pratt came over to buy her spring hat from Mrs. Cochran, as she knows where to get the correct style.

VACCINATION

There are many mad boys and girls in town who go to the Grade School. Since the one case of small pox, vaccination has been going on steadily. There are many sore arms in town.

A SICK BOY

Francis McLane, one of the young sons of Sheriff Foster McLane, has been sick for several days and is about to worry himself to death because he is missing school.

A KIDNAPPING

If this weather keeps up the boys of the town, both big and little, are in grave danger. There is a serious plot between the bates and the fish to kidnap about a hundred almost any afternoon.

BABY'S GOT A TOOTH

Emily Perrin, the baby monkey at the park and the most popular young lady in town, is getting old enough to part her hair in the middle and is cutting a tooth.

PRETTY VISITORS

Miss Pickens Tarrant and Miss Florence Black, of Mt. Carmel, were in the city Tuesday shopping and visiting their friends.

THE CIVIC CLUB.

The regular meeting of the Civic Club will be held Saturday afternoon at four o'clock in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce in the City Hall. A full meeting is desired.

Mrs. Foster McLane, President.

COUNTY GETS LICENSE MONEY

Over $400,000 has already accrued to the various counties from the 80 per cent. of the motor vehicle license fund collected so far in 1921. Abbeville county gets $6,249.20.

In Germany, 18 per cent of the marriageable women are doomed to celibacy.

GARDENING

The lovely weather has gotten into everybody's "bones" and there are many spring gardens being prepared for the cold snap just after Easter. "The dark of the moon in March" is the time to plant Irish potatoes and town farmers are busy planting. Good Friday as the proper day to plant beans has long since been discarded by the present fast generation and enough beans to feed an army has been planted around Abbeville in the past week.

SEEING THE CITY

Mrs. J. C. Ellis, Mrs. W. L. Peebles, Mrs. Frank B. Gary and Miss Maggie Latimer spent Tuesday in Greenwood seeing the big city.

New Barber Shop

One Door North of the Columbia Candy
Kitchen

Your Patronage Solicited

SHE WHO DANCES MUST PAY THE PIPER

A gorgeous drama of life and the lights of New York.

As if the very soul of Broadway
danced across the screen.

Alluring, shimmering, flushed with pleasures that drive away the blues.

Opera House—Friday

.....a Paramount Special

"Paying the Piper"

Cast includes.....

ALMA TELL
DOROTHY DICKSON

GEORGE FAWCETT
ROD LA ROQUE

Comedy Extra
Admission

"TEE TIME"
15c and 35c

ABBEVILLE and ABBEVILLE COUNTY

SOUTH CAROLINA

Served by

Southern Railway :: Seaboard Air Line

Through Vestibuled Passenger Trains

Low Freight Rates

Miles of Paved Streets
and Cement Walks
Sanitary Sewerage

Splendid Schools and Churches
Motorized Fire Dept.

Absolutely Pure Water

THE BEST LIGHTED TOWN IN THE SOUTH

Up-to-Date Merchants

No Business Failures

The First Cotton Mill in the World Operating on Profit-Sharing Plan

Two First-Class Hustling Newspapers

Public Library Large Opera House Public Parks
Working Civic Bodies Six Banks Fraternal Orders
Fine Public Buildings Beautiful Memorial Hospital

A LIVE, HUSTLING, GROWING TOWN!!

with the cheapest electric power in the country....

Two Cents Per K. W. Hour

Good Openings for Business Men who are Hustlers—Abbeville County will produce anything but Citrus Fruit—We Solicit Your Trade and Co-Operation—We will give our aid to all your Problems—We invite you to become a citizen of our town and county—For further information write, wire or phone

GEO. T. BARNES, Sec

Abbeville County Chamber of Commerce

Abbeville, South Carolina

Motor Transfer Station

22 E. Pickens St.
Telephone 414

Trucks and passenger cars for your service at all times

We Haul { ANYTHING
ANYWHERE
ANY TIME

Call 414---we'll do the rest

A. ELLIS, Mgr.